

Month	Venue	2026 Garden Groups	Details	Cost
January/February	No meeting
March/April	Sorry No meeting due to family commitments
Thursday May 21st	TALK by Rachel Glover Owner of Springfield Cottage Garden near Brewood we visited last year.	Topic To be decided but Rachel is a garden designers, landscaper and horticulturist who gave us loads of useful tips and ideas when we visited her beautiful garden.	SMVH at 2pm Rachel will be bringing a few plants for sale from her garden	£1 includes. Tea and biscuit
Thursday June 18th	Joy & Ken's NGS Garden 33 Kingston's Road, Uttoxeter.	A newly developed garden with an electric mix of perennials, themed borders, shrubs and roses. Lots of covered seating, fish ponds	2pm Car share if possible due to limited parking.	£5 which includes tea/coffee and biscuits
Wednesday July 16th	Joy & Ian's NGS Garden 115 Dartmouth Ave, Cannock. WS11 1EQ	1/3 acre around a bungalow full of herbaceous perennials, grasses, shrubs with stand alone plants like cardoon, helenium and rudbeckia etc.	2 pm. Plant available for sale All monies collected go to NGS supported charities	£10 Includes entry and Refresh- ment.
July/August	POSSIBLE VISIT TO SHROPSHIRE PETAL FIELDS	Fields full off summer colour. You will be contacted when the fields are open for visits	Date unknown depends on Mother Nature
Thursday August 20th	Paul Husselbee NGS Garden. 76 Station Road, Cheslyn Hay. WS6 7EE	40years gardening on this site has produced a hosta filled courtyard, which leads to a Mediterranean patio, formal gardens, with stream and secret garden.	2pm Plants for sale.	£4 Tea and cakes available extra
Thursday Sept 17th	The Mission. A NGS Garden Bickford Road, Whiston, Nr Penkridge St19 5QH	1 acre garden boasts ancient giant oak, shrubs, flower borders, statues, climbing roses, orchard and kitchen garden.	2pm	£12 includes a Cream tea
Thursday October 15th	TALK By Annmarie and Andrew. We visited their garden last September 'Fifty Shades of Green' in Walsall	TOPIC. How they planned, planted and developed, their amazingly unusual and lush tropical garden in Walsall.	SMVH @ 2pm.	£1 incl tea and coffee
November/December	No Meeting

			.
--	--	--	---	--